Background

Safe & Sound has been designated by the Board of Supervisors as the county's Child Abuse Council provider since 1982, and as such, has responsibility to:

- 1. Facilitate interagency cooperation and coordination in the prevention, detection, treatment, and legal processing of child abuse cases;
- 2. Promote public awareness of the abuse and neglect of children and of the resources available for intervention and treatment;
- 3. Encourage and facilitate the training of professionals in the detection, treatment, and prevention of child abuse and neglect;
- 4. Recommend improvements in services to families and victims; and
- 5. Encourage and facilitate community support for child abuse and neglect programs.

Services to be Provided

Safe & Sound currently delivers a broad range of services related to community education, system improvement, and direct intervention to families, particularly with child abuse prevention. Under this modification, the contractor will provide telephone peer support services to parents and caregivers from any location in San Francisco, available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The TALK (Telephone Aid in Living with Kids) Line is a vital resource providing early interventions, emotional support/guidance,

P.O. Box 7988 San Francisco, CA 94120-7988 www.SFHSA.org and community-based referrals for parents and caregivers experiencing stress. The program is staffed by trained and supervised volunteer parent partners, who respond to incoming calls and provide regular follow-up services with families with heightened needs. Over the past year, TALK Line volunteers responded to 2,400 calls, averaging 200 calls per month.

The purpose of this grant is to sustain and enhance the TALK Line program, whose goal is to support parents and caregivers in their efforts to advocate on behalf of their families, learn about their children's social emotional development, access supports to meet basic needs, and build community with other parents and caregivers. By funding the TALK Line, the grant contributes to fostering healthy family environments, promoting the well-being of children in our community, and preventing entry of children into the child welfare system.

Selection

Grantee was selected through Request for Proposals 1033 Child Abuse Prevention Services & Coordination, which was competitively bid in February 2023.

Funding

Funding for this grant is provided through a combination of Federal, State, and County General Funds.

Appendix A-1: Services to be Provided Safe & Sound TALK Line July 1, 2024 – June 30, 2028

I. Purpose of Grant

The TALK Line, as an extension of Safe & Sound, operates as a dedicated warmline for San Francisco parents and caregivers of children 0-18 years, offering immediate emotional support, guidance, and connection. TALK Line focuses on family empowerment to ensure children & youth are supported by nurturing families & communities. Through an intentional peer support framework, TALK Line supports parents and caregivers in their efforts to advocate on behalf of their families, learn about their children's social emotional development, access supports to meet basic needs, and build community with other parents and caregivers.

The purpose of this grant is to sustain and enhance the TALK Line program, empowering it to deliver crucial phone support services to parents and caregivers throughout San Francisco. By funding the TALK Line, the grant contributes to fostering healthy family environments, promoting the well-being of children in our community and preventing entry of children into child welfare system.

Grantee: Safe & Sound

Parent Partners: At its most basic level, a Parent Partner on the TALK Line is a person who has lived experience as a parent or primary caregiver who is raising or has raised a child. TALK Line strives to develop a base of volunteer Parent Partners whose lived experiences match those of the parents calling into the line. Therefore, we strongly encourage applications from parents who identify as having lived experiences in one or more of the following areas:

• Single parenting

- Multi-racial, multi-lingual, mixed-citizenship status household
- LGBTQ+
- Personally living with or parenting a child living with substance use or mental health challenges or disabilities
- Lived experience of divorce, separation or domestic and family violence
- Navigating one or more of the following systems: child welfare, family court, juvenile detention, social services, or immigration related systems such as DACA, or immigrant detention.

Peer Support, Intentional: Intentional peer support attempts to actively use reciprocal relationships to redefine help, with a goal of building community oriented (natural) help rather than simply creating another formal service. It involves training, certification, and ongoing education, which provides the peer parent partners with a well-defined framework within which to engage meaningfully with callers.

Peer Support, Mutual: Including the sharing of experiential knowledge and skills and social learning plays an invaluable role in recovery.

Parent-partners provide each other with a sense of belonging, supportive relationships, valued roles, and community.

III. Target Population

The TALK Line serves as a vital resource for all parents and caregivers residing in San Francisco, with a focused commitment to prioritizing support for individuals belonging to priority populations. These populations include, but are not limited to, African American/Black, Hispanic/Latinx, Multiracial, Asian, as well as low-income families, young parents, and families affected by intersecting systems of oppression. This further encompasses LGBTQ+ parents, parents with disabilities or raising children with disabilities, families experiencing homelessness, immigrant parents, undocumented families, and families impacted by involvement with the justice system.

IV. Location and Time of Services

The TALK Line operates as a telephone peer-support warmline, providing intentional peer support to parents and caregivers from any location within San Francisco. TALK Line peer support services are available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week.

V. Description of Services

The TALK (Telephone Aid in Living with Kids) Line is a confidential parent & caregiver support warmline providing early interventions, support, and community-based referrals to parents and caregivers experiencing stress. The TALK Line is primarily staffed by trained and supervised volunteer parent partners who respond to incoming calls and conduct regular follow-up with parents and caregivers with heightened needs. All line operators are trained in the five protective factors, reflective listening, and harm reduction. The goal is to support parents and caregivers in their efforts to advocate on behalf of their families, learn about their children's social emotional development, access supports to meet basic needs, and build community with other parents and caregivers.

While the primary focus is a warmline taking incoming calls that generally last 20 minutes each, TALK Line also provides a follow-up service to parents and caregivers experiencing more chronic stress. The follow-up program provides a weekly 30 minute check-in outgoing call made by staff and parent partners. Over the course of a year, a participant in TALK Line's follow-up service will receive roughly twenty six (26) hours of support (reflecting 52 weeks in a year at 30 minutes per call). This number does not reflect additional incoming or outgoing calls that may result from the parent/caregiver needing additional support beyond the standing weekly check-in. Activities without personal information include:

- 1. Barrier removal
- 2. Family supports
- 3. Learning supports
- 4. Referrals/connections to services
- 5. Wellness and mental health supports
